ShareFest Workday May 2nd

PRINT

On Saturday May 2 thousands of volunteers will join together in an effort to better their neighborhoods, but you have a chance to make an impact now.

ShareFest is currently accepting project suggestions from recipient organizations and individuals who know their community. Volunteer organizations such as churches, businesses and community groups are encouraged to participate in the Workday by registering with ShareFest and adopting projects that have been submitted. All of this can be done quickly and easily through ShareFest's at www.sharefest.org or by emailing us at info@sharefestinc.org.

This year, the ShareFest Workday and the Mayor Villaraigosa's Harbor Day of Service fall on the same day and we will be combining efforts to mobilize the South Bay and Harbor Area communities to make a big impact.

Mark your calendars and participate in the 2009 Workday and Harbor Area Mayor's Day of Service on Saturday, May 2nd!

Schools, Cities, Community Groups - Register your work project: <http://register.sharefestinc.org/project>

Churches - Register your church to adopt a project: <http://register.sharefestinc.org/church>

Businesses, Organizations, Clubs - Register your organization to adopt a project: <http://register.sharefestinc.org/organization>

If you registered in the past please login at: <http://register.sharefestinc.org>

Want to help friends and family donate to ShareFest for the upcoming Workday? Go to this link to get started: <http://www.sharefestinc.org/pledge>
